Article 1: Results of the Columbia School District election held earlier in the day were read as follows:

School Moderator	Margaret Salls
School Clerk	Barbara Killam
School Auditors	Lucille Lalande
	Lori Berry
School Board (3 yrs)	Scott Berry
School Treasurer	Barbara Killam

Article 2: Mary Lou Placy moved that the salaries of the School Board and any other Officers or Agents of the District be fixed as set forth in the Annual School Report. James Lawrence seconded the motion which then carried.

Article 3: Vickie Bunnell moved that the reports of the Officers, Agents, Auditors and Committees of the Columbia School District, as set forth in the Annual Report of the District, be accepted and placed on file. Mary Lou Placy seconded the motion and the vote was in the affirmative.

Article 4: Mary Lou Placy moved that the School Board be authorized to include in the S A U #7 Budget the position of Coordinator of Special Services and Secretary per RSA 189:47-a; to be effective July 1, 1989. Vickie Bunnell seconded the motion.

Mr. Allen, Superintendent of Schools spoke briefly explaining Articles 4 and 5, indicating that this was basically a matter of cleaning up bookkeeping details and that no appreciable changes in supervision and procedures would result. He mentioned also that putting these three positions under the jurisdiction of the Supervisory Board would be in the best interest of all involved towns as it would more clearly delineate liabilities and insurance responsibilities. The vote was in the affirmative.

Article 5: Lori Berry moved that the School Board be authorized to include in the S A U #7 Budget the position of School Psychologist, per RSA 189:47-a; to be effective July 1, 1989. Vickie Bunnell seconded the motion and the vote was in the affirmative.

Article 6: Mary Lou Placy moved that the District vote to adopt the provisions of RSA 198:20-b to authorize the School Board to apply for, accept, and expend, without further action by the School District meeting, money from any source which becomes available during the fiscal year provided further that:

- II. The School Board shall be required to hold a prior public meeting on any action to be taken regarding expenditures of such money.
- III. Such action shall not require provisions of RSA 32 relative to limitation expenditure of School District monies.
- IV. Be exempt from all provisions of RSA 32 relative to limitation and expenditure of school district moneys.

Edward Poulin seconded the motion and the vote was in the affirmative.

Article 7: Mary Lou Placy moved to authorize the School Board to make application for and to accept, on behalf of the District, any or all grants or offers for educational purposes which may now or hereafter be forthcoming from the State of New Hampshire and/or the United States. Scott Berry seconded the motion which then carried.

Article 8: Mary Lou Placy moved that the District raise and appropriate the sum of $491,693.00 for the support of schools, for the salaries of School District Officials and Agents and for the payment of statutory obligations of the District and authorize the application against said appropriation of such sums as are estimated to be raised from State equalization and building aid funds, together with other income, the balance to be raised by taxation. Lori Berry seconded the motion and the vote was in the affirmative.

Article 9: The Moderator read an article concerning purchase of equipment and construction of a community playground/park at the Colebrook Elementary School. This was for informational purposes only as the article was received too late to be included in the Warrant.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 9:05 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

School board members, school personnel, and interested community members continue to wrestle with the problem of improving and upgrading school facilities. As this necessary task continues, progress has been made in improving educational programs.

A guidance counselor has been added at the elementary level to deal with a variety of problems, including those of social and academic adjustment which are often experienced by children just entering school or reaching adolescence.

Also, a Gifted/Talented program has been initiated at the elementary school through efforts of interested parents and teachers. Through a funded project, teachers have received training and attended workshops and seminars to enable them to integrate creative problem solving and thinking skills into their daily instructional methods.

Colebrook Elementary School was chosen as 1 of 10 schools for a pilot program for school improvement. The state project has received nationwide recognition. Current priorities in this on-going project are: to make efforts to involve more citizens in the programs of the school; to improve and formalize the lines of communication between all interested parties.

As the 1988-89 school year opened, unexpected increase in first grade enrollment made it necessary to hire another teacher at that level, making three sections.

At the Academy, creative scheduling was necessary to meet the physical education graduation requirement (though we still do not meet the minimum standard of offering two physical education credits). Grade 11 bus students are taken directly to the elementary gym for PE, then bused to the Academy for the rest of the day. Grade 11 students who walk to school are bused to the gym last period of the day for PE, then dismissed from there to walk home. NOTE: We still need to do something more to meet the minimum requirement.

Through the limited funding we receive from vocational education grants, equipment is being upgraded in the business and home economics areas.

Much of what is being done in the daily routines of the educational process needs to be documented, so curriculum development continues to be a priority for school staff. Policy and guideline development are parts of the work being done by board members and administrators.

It seems that new issues are always on the horizon in the education domain. Three come to mind that the State Board of Education and the Department of Education want us to address:

- AIDS prevention education
- Character/values education
- Drop-out prevention programs

We are well aware that funding is limited, not only for education, but also for the necessary community projects such as sewer, landfill, road maintenance, etc... As a new session of the legislature begins, it is important to stay informed and be sure that our legislators are acting in our interests in assuring that mandated programs and projects are fully funded. I believe most of us can and should do a better job in communicating with our area legislators.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul F. Allen
Superintendent of Schools.

COORDINATOR OF SPECIAL SERVICES

During the 1987-88 school year, there were approximately 100 students within the S A U #7 needing Special Education Services. These services have been offered through regular and special education classrooms except in a few cases where the severity of the handicap or an order of the court has necessitated out-of-district placement.

The overall quality of services in the seven special educational settings has been good and, in some instances, exceptional. In particular, Ms. Norma Chenevert, the previous Coordinator of Special Services, has become Head Teacher as well as Resource Room Teacher at the West Side School in Stewartstown. Her dedication and knowledge of the field of special education have made a profound difference on the students in that school.

We have been fortunate in being able to provide quality services in the related areas of Speech/Language, Occupational Therapy & School Psychology through contracts with local professionals. Physical Therapy, Vision and Diagnostic Services have also been provided through various local and regional agencies.

We have continued to see the benefit of providing services for preschool handicapped children. Early identification and intervention appear to be ameliorating problems in many of these children prior to entering first grade.

Tutorial programs for vocationally disadvantaged students provided benefits for high school students in Pittsburg and Colebrook.

Two staff members continue to pursue Special Education Certification through the Pool Expansion Program (PEP). This program is administered by the State Department of Education to attract teaching professionals into the field of Special Education.

There has been an emphasis to coordinate curriculum and student objectives among the various Special Education classrooms in the S A U.

Parents, teachers, school boards, and administrators continue to provide the support necessary to enable our programs to be responsive to student needs.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas Oren
Coordinator of Special Services

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR'S REPORT

On the happy side, the Senior class was again a pleasure to work with, and, despite predictions to the contrary, more than sixty percent chose to pursue some form of postsecondary education. The Financial Aid Workshop was well attended by both students and parents, as we encouraged students to become more knowledgeable about the aid available and how to access it. In this regard, our local community deserves a lot of credit for assisting our students by establishing new scholarships or increasing existing ones. For a student, it is extremely supporting to know that your community believes in you.

The Gifted and Talented Collaborative offered some of our students an opportunity to take a college level course while still in high school, and several students traveled to Berlin for a Greek Theatre production.

Career Development at the Junior High became more comprehensive as we leaned more toward encouraging good decision making and assessing ones interest, values, and goals. All eighth graders took a career interest survey, scored it themselves, and charted the results. Plans were made to extend this program into the seventh grade.

Unhappily, space considerations and clerical needs caused some real problems. Many career development opportunities were missed by high school students because we did not have the time or space for them. It was nearly impossible to find a room in which to administer the PSAT for four consecutive periods, and the ASVAB testing in the cafeteria was interrupted by the arrival of the elementary students for lunch. Because we are unable to bring Physical Education down into the ninth and tenth grades, many eleventh graders face choosing between a lab science, a third year of Foreign Language, Band, or Chorus.

The need to approve a placement process and objectives for a "C" level has become more compelling. We have an obligation to serve our slower learners who are not coded for Special Education.

The need for part-time clerical help in Guidance is becoming acute. Due to the confidentiality of the work, we are unable to use students to help lighten most of the load. Again, many professional hours are consumed by clerical duties.

SCHOOL HEALTH REPORT

The purpose of school nursing is to enhance the educational process by maximizing the health and well being of school age children and adolescents physically, intellectually, socially and emotionally. The school nurse hopefully accomplishes this through the modification or removal of health related barriers to learning and through the promotion of an optimum level of wellness. Although the school nurse works with the essentially well child, school nursing also includes children with acute and chronic illness, injury, handicapping conditions and developmental disabilities. In this district, the school nurse is also involved with many preschool activities.

Dr. David Goodman was once again our school physician and his guidelines for a comprehensive school health program were followed.

A grant for grades one through four for a new drug and alcohol curriculum "Here's Looking At You, 2000" was written as a joint effort to be used by all schools in S A U #7. Teachers began the training sessions in preparation for initiation next year. It looks like a great program.

Teacher training was also completed this year for teaching sexual abuse prevention in the school setting. Money was made available through a grant written by Charles Berney, social worker for DCYS (Division of Children & Youth Services). The teaching equipment for this series is housed at the S A U office for all area teachers to use.

The usual screening procedures were done again this year for vision, hearing, height, weight, blood pressure, immunization status and scoliosis (curvature of the spine) in the elementary school. The Academy students didn't receive their fair share due to lack of time. I strongly need and recommend a part time secretary/health aide for the school health services.

An immunization school based clinic was again held this year whereby immunizations were offered and given on an individual basis to meet state requirements.

The Developmental Screening Program was made available again this year for children ages three through five for fine and gross motor skills, concepts and communication.

Also the preschool vision and hearing clinic for children ages four through six was again held. This is only possible with the help of the Academy students and they did a great job as usual. This report gives me a chance to let the people in this community know what great kids we have in Colebrook and to thank them for helping our younger population in this very worthwhile project.

In closing, I would like to thank the parents and the school personnel for their involvement, assistance, support and cooperation.

Respectively submitted,

Sarah Jane Cummings
School Nurse

COLEBROOK/COLUMBIA CHAPTER I REPORT

Chapter I money can provide programs designed to help children avoid failure in school or it can provide programs in areas where children are having trouble.

Does this mean that children in the Chapter I program receive more help in school than other children? Yes, this is why the money is granted--to give extra help to those children who are having difficulty or who may have difficulty in school.

The eligibility of children is determined by the local school district, but only a limited number of children can be served, so that those who need help the most have a better chance to succeed.

A three-year program is available to first grade participants which will enable each child to progress through each phase of the primary reading program by setting immediately accessible individual goals. This will ensure frequent experiences of reading success that will continue to endure throughout the child's education and beyond.

The pace at which a child will progress is affected by the ability of the child, but the reading experiences which make all children eager to learn are basically the same.

When a child experiences achievement, that child becomes motivated. But if this learning is not challenging, the child will lose interest. If it gives a sense of personal failure, the child will no longer participate in any meaningful way.

Before a child learns to read, that child must believe in himself or herself, but the child's teacher must also really believe that all children can become good readers. If a child experiences failure, the teacher has not found the right method or the right book to "turn on those reading skills." It is the teacher's responsibility to create a learning environment that will bring about successful achievement every day. Success builds upon success.

The secret ingredient to success for some children may be nothing more than patience. Children need time to develop and some need more time than others.

This year 62 children from grades 1-4 participated wholeheartedly in our program. (22 were first graders) They were exposed to new concepts and vocabulary during teacher-directed reading activities. They learned together how to develop reading skills and were given many, many opportunities to discover independently that reading can be relaxing, enjoyable and worthwhile.

In return, they raised reading success to new heights with a Chapter I program that in their eyes wins hands down. Thank you, Chapter I Charmers, for your unlimited enthusiasm, confidence, and cooperation. No teacher succeeds alone.

Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Lambert, and I would also like to thank parents, teachers, Mr. Allen, Mr. LeShane, the Colebrook School Board, and the Colebrook-Columbia communities for helping the Chapter I program become an important component of the school's total reading program. It is viewed as an invaluable teaching tool that goes hand in hand with stimulating interest and building confidence in readers of all levels.

Did you know that Colebrook Academy's 1988 Valedictorian at one time was a Title I (in 1981 the name was changed to Chapter I) participant?

Congratulations, Derrick Grover, we always knew you'd excel!

Respectfully submitted,

Rosalie Hawes
Chapter I Project Manager
